PREFACE

THE following bibliographies were drawn up and systematised by Dr. W. A. Shaw. In the preparation of that of Dr. Creighton he was much aided by Mrs. Creighton ; that of Dr. Stubbs is mainly based on information collected by the Rev. W. H. Hutton ; the materials for that of Dr. Gardiner were partly collected by Dr. C. H. Firth and Mrs. Gardiner ; while, in regard to that of Lord Acton, Dr. Shaw has been assisted by the present Lord Acton, by Mr. R. V. Laurence, of Trinity College, Cambridge, and especially Mr. T. F. Wetherell, to whom, as co-editor with Lord Acton of the Rambler and Home and Foreign Review, and editor of the Chronicle and North British Review, the identification of his unsigned writings in those periodicals is due. The order followed is that of the dates at which the respective authors died. I do not wish to evade the responsibility of a general direction, but the credit of a very laborious and, it is hoped, useful piece of work is due to Dr. Shaw.

G. W. PROTHERO,
President Royal Historical Society.
